Rick Stainton, Jr. ’98

Stainton was a standout two-sport athlete in men's soccer and lacrosse. During his senior season, Stainton claimed the starting goalkeeper position for the men’s soccer team, leading the squad to a NAIA Regional Championship and a berth in the National Tournament. Rick’s tremendous efforts in goal received wide acclaim as he was recognized with a place on the 1997 Mayflower All-Conference Team and was named the 1997 NAIA Northeast Region’s Most Valuable Player.
